DAUGHTERS MEET IN CONVENTION

Led by Mrs. Randolph, They Give The Rebel Yell With Effect.

TWO THOUSAND JOIN.

Warm Greeting Given Women—Memorial Flag is Presented to the First Regiment.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 1.—Arriving 35 minutes late at the welcoming exercises in the City Auditorium to the Virginia Division, Daughters of the Confederacy, the Richmond Blues last night broke in on the address of Lieutenant-Governor Ellyson, and carried the house by storm. The strains of "Dixie" wafted through open doors and windows and proclaimed the coming of the Blues, and the audience rose to its feet with a shout. Lieut-Governor Ellyson had just started his address, but wild cheers and rebel yells drowned his efforts, and Mrs. Randolph ran forward with her fan and called him to a halt.

The stage was admirably set for the welcome to the delegates to the eighteenth annual convention of the Virginia Division.

The auditorium was about half filled, there being approximately 2,000 people present, among them being, besides the veteran soldiers, members of the home for Needy Confederate Women and representatives of other allied Confederate organizations.

Mrs. N. V. Randolph, president of the Richmond Chapter, called the convention to order and carried the program through with inspiring energy, and every time the rebel yell was sounded it was she who led the famous battle cry.

The invocation was delivered by the Rev. James Power Smith, D. D., the last surviving officer on General Stonewall Jackson's staff.

Acting Mayor William H. Adams, extended a welcome on the part of the city, and said that he was proud to welcome such an organization within its portals.

The feature of the opening exercises followed by the presentation of a beautiful memorial flag to the First Virginia Regiment. It was brought up to the stage by Lawrence Edwards and Spruell Blenner, of the Grandchildren's Chapter.

It was received by Major Lawrence T. Price, with his staff officers, and he accepted it in deep appreciation of the the spirit which had prompted the gift.

Messrs. Martenstein and Cenapa sang a duet, and another song was rendered by the high school chorus.

As the song died away, Mrs. Randolph, overcome by her feeling, stepped forward and shouted, "Come on, boys," and the wild rebel yell that once carried fear into the hearts of the enemies burst forth in a tremendous shout. Then, all standing, the band played "Dixie' again, and once more the battle cry was sounded through the house. The exercises were closed with the yell.

The first business session of the convention was held in the auditorium of the Jefferson Hotel this morning. A reception will be held in honor of the delegates and other visitors in the Jefferson tonight.

COMMITTED TO JAIL.

Frank Benton, arrested by Deputy United States Marshal William Schoeni on a charge of violating the provisions of the "white slave" law, following a preliminary hearing yesterday before United States Commissioner R. P. W. Garnett, was held for the action of the Baltimore authorities, in which city he will be tried. He was committed to jail. The arrest of Benton was made on complaint of the immigrant inspector of Baltimore.

SHRINERS NOTICE.

All committees having in charge matters concerning the meeting of Acca Temple, Saturday, are requested to meet at the Elks' Hall tonight, October 1st, at 8 o'clock.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

One woman was instantly killed, another probably fatally injured, and two men and a woman were slightly injured yesterday afternoon when an automobile said to have been driven at terrific speed, turned turtle on Eastern avenue road, Baltimore. The dead woman was Lottie Thorn, 19 years old. Marie Krouse is in an unconscious condition at a hospital, and physicians say she probably will die. The party, among whom was George K. Konig, son of the late Congressman from the Third Maryland district, and owner of the automobile, is said to have been made up Monday night, the quintet remaining away from their homes all night. Charles Fetzer, the chauffeur, was arrested on the charge of operating an automobile without a license.

Because his wife, whom he deserted seventeen years ago and whom he had not seen for eight years, refused to become reconciled to him, and then refused his demand for money, Morris Rosenthal, aged 60, of New York, early yesterday shot her through the left eye, killing her instantly. He then turned the revolver on himself and sent a bullet into his mouth. He is in St. Catherine's Hospital, Williamsburg, dying. The shooting occurred in a dry goods store the wife, Mrs Bessie Rosenthal, conducted at 52 Humboldt street, Williamsburg. As Rosenthal fell, neighbors rushed into the store. Infuriated at the wanton crime, they jumped upon the unconscious form of the murderer, kicked him, and stamped upon him, and but for the arrival of a policeman, would have killed him.

The most serious of the race riots that have recently stirred Baltimore by reason of negroes taking up their residence in white districts broke out last night in an unexpected quarter, and for a time threatened serious consequences. As it was, four white youths were wounded by buckshot, a policeman was seriously cut about the face, one colored man cut about the arms, and the negro who did the shooting was so badly beaten that he is not expected to recover.

The British steamer Templemore, Capt. Jones, Baltimore for Liverpool, September 27, was on fire late Monday night in latitude 39.27 north, longitude 65.26 west. She sent out a call for immediate assistance, and at 3:50 a. m., yesterday the steamer Arcadia, from Hamburg, picked up her crew and is proceeding to Baltimore. The Templemore flashed a wireless call for aid, which Capt. Boldt, of the Arcadia, promptly heeded, reaching the burning vessel in the nick of time. The transfer of the crew was affected just before daylight, while the ocean for miles around was lighted up by the flames. When all on board had been taken off the Templemore was left to her fate.

At the bedside of her daughter, Beatrice Stephens, 12 years old, who swallowed mercury, because she despaired of reconciling her parents, who separated a year ago, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Stephens, of St. Louis, forgot their differences. They will live together henceforth, whether their daughter survives or dies. Ever since last night the mother and father have remained at the girl's bedside.

A lone highwayman late yesterday afternoon held up in Hackensack, N. J., an auto containing Attorney John S. Mahon and wife and daughter, and robbed the party of all their money and jewels. The hold-up occurred while Attorney Mahon and his family were taking a short ride along the Pallisades. The robber leaped from behind some trees, as the machine approached, and ordered the attorney and women to throw up their hands. They were obliged to leave the machine and deposit their valuables at the point indicated by the bandit. After the robber had taken his loot from the ground he shot holes in the auto tires to prevent the victims giving an immediate alarm, and then fled into the woods.

Plunging over an almost precipitous cliff of a distance of 100 feet, making several revolutions in the fall and landing in Knaps Creek, the touring car of S. F. Wise, a lumber manufacturer, of Clover Lick, Pocahontas county, W. Va., killed or injured a party of seven passengers.

TARIFF BILL IN THE SENATE

Democratic Members Oppose Conference Report On Measure.

SITUATION IS SERIOUS.

Senator Reed, of Missouri, Threatens to Vote Against Bill and Trouble is Experienced.

Washington, Oct. 1.—With a half dozen Democratic Senators vigorously objecting to the conference report on the tariff bill, and with Senator Reed, of Missouri, threatening to vote against it, the progress of the tariff measure toward the White House struck a snag today.

The situation was sufficiently serious to bring about a Senate Democratic caucus. Yielding to the petition of a number of Senators, Majority Lealer Kern called a caucus for 11 o'clock this morning.

At that hour, nearly all Democratic Senators who are in the city got together to try to straighten out the tangle. While it is not believed there is any real danger of defeat of the conference report, nevertheless the sudden development of opposition worrfied the leaders.

Senator Reed, who objects to several features of the conference report, is sufficiently stirred up so that he may kick over the traces entirely and refuse to support the bill. This defection would not defat the bill, but it would tend to endanger and would much disturb Democratic harmony, which is already shaken because of the currency situation.

Senator Reed objects to several items regarding rates and does not like certain details of the income tax section. Senator Pomerene and Senator Hitchcock are other recalcitrants. Senator Simmons, chairman of the Finance Committee, said before the caucus, that he expected to ask the Senate to take up the conference report today. He does not expect the caucus to upset the report.

DAUGHTERS OF CONFEDERACY.

The following ladies will represent Mary Custis Lee Chapter at the eighteenth annual convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy to be held in New Orleans, November 10th.

Delegates—Mrs. William J. Morton, Mrs. David Janney Howell, Mrs. Edward H. Kemper, and Mrs. Geo. Anderton. Alternates, Mrs. James E. Alexander, Mrs. Edgar Carpenter, Miss Mary Snowden and Miss Ada H. Garrett.

IVY FROM MT. VERNON.

Planted Around Memorial Continental Hall in Washington.

Daughters of the American Revolution representing the 13 original States yesterday planted ivy gathered at the tomb of Washington around the 13 marble columns supporting the south portico of the MeMmorial Continental Hall.

Mrs. William Cumming Story, President-General of the Daughters of the American Revolution, presided and speeches were delivered by representatives of each of the State delgations.

The chaplain general, who is one of the founders of the D. A. R., Mrs. Mary S. Lockwood, offered a prayer. Mrs. Emma Ball, vice-regent of Virginia, of the Mount Vernon Ladies' Association, which she officially represented for Miss Comegys, of Delaware, the regent, then presented the ivy with a few appropriate remarks. Mrs. Horace M. Towner, wife of Representative Towner, of Iowa, who is a vice regent of that State, was the other official of the Mount Vernon Association present.

The committee of arrangements, of which Mrs. Charles W. Richardson was the chairman, was composed of Mrs. William A. Smoot, Mrs. Drury Ludlow, Mrs. George Smallwood, Mrs. Washington Howard, Miss Grace M. Pierce, Mrs. Vida R. Clemenson, who was special aid to Mrs. Richardson, and Mrs. Hurdle.

PREPARE FOR CEREMONIAL.

Committees Named For Entertainment of Acca Temple of Shrine.

D. C. O'Flaherty, illustrious potentate, of Acca Temple, of the Mystic Shrine, has issued the following address relative to the ceremonial session to be held on next Saturday night:

"The good Nobles of Alexandria, led by that old Roman, E. E. Downham, one of the representatives of Acca Temple (may Allah preserve him), and many others of the Nobility are making provision for your entertainment in this ancient city on the Potomac, sacred to men and Masons: the Shrine to which Presidents, Kings and Potentates wend their way to worship. It is the Mecca of this glorious land of the free, for here the Immortal Brother Washington presided in the east, and if he were living, it is here he would join the Mystic Shrine. It is here Almas, Boumi and Khedive and all other less favored Temples come for inspiration. May many of their members sit with us under the shade of our goodly tents, add to our happiness and enjoy true Virginia hospitality. At its outer gates are Arlington and Mount Vernon, the homes of the Peerless Lee and the Immortal Washington, the Patron Saint of the City. Within its gates reside many of Acca's true nobility, where

"The atmosphere
Breathes rest and comfort, and the many chambers
Seem full of welcome."

"Let us embrace the opportunity of making the Pilgrimage to this interesting city."

The following named committees will have charge of the entertainment of the visiting nobles and will meet tonight at 8 o'clock in Elks' Home:

ELECTRIC DISTURBANCE.

Midnight Thunder Storm Awakened Most People Last Night.

The warm conditions of yesterday were followed at the close of the day by cloudy and threatening weather. Early in the night there were flashes of lightning and later distant thunder was heard. Between ten and eleven o'clock rain began to fall when the electric display became incessant. Flash followed flash with the roll of thunder which continued about three hours.

Occasionally vivid displays accompanied by terrific crashes from heaven's artillery aroused many from their slumbers and caused apprehension to others who were watching the antics of the celestial batteries.

While the elements were active torrential rains were falling.

The wind was comparatively light during the time the tempest was raging, and no damage followed from that source, nor did the lightning cause any trouble beyond putting some telephones out of commission temporarily.

Conditions during today have been cloudy and threatening.

TROUBLE WITH THE CURRENCY BILL

Conflict of Opinion is Apparent in Democratic Circle.

FRIENDS ARE HOPEFUL

Split Seems Inevitable—Conference Last Night to Formulate Plans to Hasten Report.

Washington, Oct. 1.—The conflict of opinion in Democratic circle over the currency bill and the fact that President Wilson does not have as complete command of the Senate situation as optimistic statements in the White House quarters indicate has been shown in various ways in the last twenty-four hours.

Along with the announcement that the President will forego his vacation and will defer his trip to Panama for the purpose of hurrying up monetary legislation, a statement has come from Senator Reed of Missouri, in which he says the pending bill will be considered in full. He adds that he will vote for the bill if it is wise in his opinion. will vote for amendments if he thinks them necessary, and will vote against the bill if he does not approve it and deems it bad.

Following a conference at the White House yesterday between the President and Senators Owen and Shafroth, a conference of administration senators on the committee was held last night in the apartments of Senator Pomerene. Senator Reed was among those present. Senators Hitchcock and O'Gorman were absent. The purpose of the conference was to formulate some plan to hasten the report of the bill from committee.

BANQUET TOMORROW.

M. J. McFarland, chairman of the entertainment committee, will preside at the banquet and act as toastmaster.

The committee in charge of the affair has for some time past been actively engaged in completing plans for the celebration and it is expected that more than 100 members of the Lyceum will attend.

SHOT BY DIVORCED WIFE.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 1.—Rising from the breakfast table to answer the door bell, Frank Ivy, a real estate dealer, was shot and probably fatally wounded yesterday in the presence of his second wife and their two babies. After firing two bullets into her divorced husband's body, Mrs. Ivy dropped the revolver. Ivy picked up the gun and fired at the woman as she ran down the streets, the bullet striking her in the leg. She is now in jail.

ROSH HASHANAH.

Jewish New Year Begins Today at Sundown.

Again the Jews, the world over, are preparing to observe the holy season which begins with Rosh Hashanah, or New Year's Day this evening and ends with the Shemini Atzeretn—The Feast of Conclusion—on the evening of October 23rd. As has been stated in the Gazette, Rev. Mr. Cohn, a young man from the Hebrew College at Cincinnati, will conduct the services in the Washington street Synagogue in this city.

In the Jewish tradition, the Rosh Hashanah marks the anniversary of the creation of the world, supposed to have taken place 5,674 years ago. The present Rosh Hashanah, therefore, will mark the beginning of the year 5,674.

The change of date, however, is of little or no importance, and if the Jewish New Year's day had no further significance, its appeal to the Jew would be very faint indeed. It is not the change of year but the change of life that this day stresses, that makes it stand out as one of the holiest days in the Jewish calendar. Herein it radically differs from our civil New Year; it is a day set apart for introspection and self-examination. The sacred character of this day is implied in the two other names by which it is known, viz., the Day of Memorial and the Day of the Blowing of the Trumpets. In the first place it is the Day of Memorial, or Remembrance. As such, it calls upon the Jew to remember the divine purpose of his life; secondly, it is the Day of the Blowing of the Trumpets. Its purpose is to rouse Israel from his self-complacency and stir him to high resolves and nobler deeds.

The Rosh Hashanah derives its significance from the fact that it is but the introduction of the Day of Atonement which follows ten days later.

The essential ceremony of the services in the synagogue on Rosh Hashanah is the blowing of the trumpet, in accordance with the injunction in Leviticus 23:24, which reads, "In the seventh month, on the first day of the month shall ye have a Sabbath, a memorial blowing of trumpets, and holy convocation."

In the Reform Synagogue, Rosh Hashanah is celebarted from sunset of October the first to sunset of October the second, whereas among Orthodox Jews, the holiday does not end until sunset of October the third.

GOOD SHOWING IN STATE FINANCES

Virginia's Balance in Treasury to Date is $347,786.

INCREASE IS $250,000.00.

R. F. & P. R.R., Tax Settlement Adds $167,805 to Fiscal Year—Comparisons Made.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 1.—The close of the State's fiscal year last night, according to the balance sheet struck by Auditor of Public Accounts, C. Lee Moore, finds a balance of $82,823,34 in the State Treasury to the credit of the Commonwealth. The showing is the best in recent years, and, judged from the point of the book balance alone, exceeds by a considerable amount the surplus predicted by the auditor. On October 1, 1912—one year ago—the balance in the State Treasury was $135,037.72. The comparative figures, however, are not truly indicative of the relative surpluses of the two years. At least two large items must be deducted from this year's balance for a just comparison—$167,805.53 received from the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad in the recent adjustment of the taxation question, and $30,000 which was paid by the sureties of the Commonwealth Bank for the State's account in that institution, the latter being an item which should be deducted from the surplus of today because it was included in the balance of October, 1, 1912.

The deduction of the two items noted leaves a balance of $285,017.81, which is more nearly admissable for comparison with the $135,000 book balance of October 1, 1912. Last night's balance was struck after the payment of the literary fund and all salaries for the month just past—charges that have usually been made against the account of the year following.

With only the bare book balance to guide him in his reckoning, John T. Sale, of the auditor's office, estimated last night that the net increase in returns from all sources over the returns from all sources last year, will approximate $250,000. Part of this, he said, was due to the natural increase in licenses and property values.

The auditor received from all sources in the period between October 1, 1912, and September 30, 1913, $7,466,353.71. The disbursements during the same period totaled $7,118,878.09. The receipts and disbursements for the fiscal year October 1, 1911, to September 30, 1912, were, respectively, $7,051,541, and $7,183,467.53.

Compared with the book balance of $482,823.34 to the credit of the State at the begining of the new fiscal year today, the book balance on October 1, 1912, was $134,636.90. On October 1, 1911, it was $266,314.79; and on October 1, 1910, it was $276,000.

THREE INMATES ESCAPE

Leave Station House at Early Hour This Morning After Enjoying Breakfast

Three prisoners, George Williams, held for the authorities of Fairfax county, on the charge of having been implicated in the robbery of W. M. Bonkemeyer, of Randle, N. C., Carmade Nalls, who was held for drunk and disorderly conduct, and an unknown white man, arrested for drunkenness, escaped from the police station this morning between seven and eight o'clock. Williams had been locked up in a cell over night, while the two other men were given the liberty of the corridor. Officer Gill let Williams out of his cell at seven o'clock this morning to wash and dress himself and also to get breakfast. Trays for the three men were placed in the corridor and after eating their breakfast the men scaled the walls of the station house by means of a plank, forced open the iron bars which guarded a small window and escaped through a hole 10 by 12 inches in size. When Officer Gill went to remove the breakfast trays he found the corridor empty.

Williams and two companions, Charles J. Berg and Samuel Bowman were arrested yesterday afternoon at the Union Station on a charge preferred by Bonkemeyer. The latter stated that he left Washington at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon on a Washington Southern train enroute for his home in North Carolina. Shortly before arriving in Alexandria he noticed that his pocketbook, containing between $60 and $100, was missing. He got out of the train and pointed out the three men to a special officer at the Union Station who took them in custody. Berg and Bowman were locked up in cells in another part of the police station, and were not able to make their escape. They will be turned over to the Fairfax authorities today.

TWO ALARMS TURNED IN.

Two fires, supposed to be of incendiary origin, brought out the fire department last night. The first was discovered at 11 o'clock in the alley in the rear of the old Friendship Fire Engine house. Someone had set fire to a lot of boxes and barrels in close proximity of the engine house but the flames were discovered before any headway was made. The second alarm was given at 4 o'clock when a stable owned by Thomas J. Fannon, in the block bounded by Patrick, Henry, Wolfe and Duke streets, was discovered to be on fire. It was distinguished by the fire department of the Southern Railway shops before the city department reached the scene.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION.

W. C. T. U. MEETS AT LURAY.

Virginia Organization Begins Its Annual Session.

Luray, Va., Oct. 1.—National and State temperance workers are here in large numbers to attend the 31st annual convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Virginia.

Mrs. Howard M. Hoge, state president, called the convention to order yesterday.

The treasurer's report and those of the secretaries of the various departments, coupled with detailed statements of the newspapers enlisted in the cause, consumed the entire forenoon session.

These reports show that the organization is in the most flourishing condition. The incessant warfare the organization is making against saloons and distilleries in this State, according to reports made to the organization, shows a marked reduction in number.

The address of welcome was delivered by J. B.Martin, mayor of Luray, in the auditorium of Main street, Baptist Church tonight.

CAVALRY BREAKS CAMP.

Line of Horsemen Three Miles Long Marches From Winchester.

Winchester, Va., Oct. 1.—Historic Shenandoah Valley witnessed scenes yesterday which recalled war days as a line of cavalrymen, fully three miles long,riding two abreast, wended their way over the county roads, starting on their long march across country to Washington.

The troopers, comprising the Tenth, Eleventh and Fifteenth Regiments of the United States Cavalry, had been in camp near here for several months, working out war problems, in accordance with a program of the General Staff of the Army. Camp was broken yesterday morning. Several days will be occupied in the march to Washington, where it is expected they will be reviewed by President Wilson during their three days' encampment at Fort Myer, Va., before departing by train for their posts.

$11,000 IS MISSING.

Assistant Postmaster at Pocahontas, Va., Sought on Theft Charge.

Roanoke, Va., Oct 1.—Two registered packages—one of $10,000 and another containing $1,000—are missing from the registered pouch of the postoffice at Pocahontas, Va. Coincident with the disappearance of the two packages, a local detective firm has been asked by postoffice inspectors at Bluefields, W. Va., to locate Edwin M .Silberger, assistant postmaster at Pocahontas, for whose arrest Federal warrants have been issued charging Silberger with the robbery of the two packages.

It is known Silberger came east as far as Roanoke on an early morning train. The conductor described the wanted man as having boarded his train at Bluestone Junction, 5 miles from Pocahontas, and to have paid him a cash fare to Roanoke. The two registered packages were locked in the pouch and left in Silberger's charge, to be sent east to depositaries. The $10,000 pacakage was consigned by a Pocahontas bank to Lynchburg, Va., and northern correspondents. The smaller package contained Postmaster M. L. Mustard's remittances.

DEATH OF PROF. STAPLES.

Deceased Was a Washington and Lee Law Instructor.

Roanoke, Va., Oct. 1.—After a brief illness of Bright's disease, which caused him to come here to undergo treatment in the Jefferson Hospital, to which institution he was removed Monday, from the home of his brother, Judge Walter K. Staples, whom he had visited since Saturday, Prof. Abram Pen Staples, 65 years old, professor of law at Washington and Lee University, Lexington, died here early yesterday morning.

Killed by His Grandson.

Suffolk, Va., Oct. 1.—Phillip Cross, a well-known colored farmer, while sowing clover seed on his farm between Suffolk and Magnolia late yesterday afternoon, was shot and instantly killed by his grandson, Thos. Fields, 17 years old. The boy and his younger brother were squirrel hunting and came through the field where the old man was at work. Cross upbraided the boys and took the gun away from them. After a short dispute the older boy got the gun away from the old man and shot him in the breast. The boys were brought to Suffolk and lodged in the county jail, pending an inquest to be held in the morning.

Woman is Shot.

Roanoke, Va., Oct. 1.—DeWitt Holbrook, of this city, is being held under $1,000 bond in Winston-Salem, N. C., on the charge of shooting Louise Holder in the shoulder while on a joyride Sunday night.

The man and woman say they were drinking and that the shooting was accidental. The woman is in a sanitarium, and it is thought that she will recover, although she is seriously injured.

Holbrook is well known here but little is known concerning the Holder woman in this city. The shooting is reported to have caused a sensation in Winston-Salem.

MANY WILL ATTEND FAIR.

Will Open Nex. Monday And Close Saturday, October 11.

Richmond, Va., Oct 1.—The gates of Richmond are already open for the influx of thousands next week. Mayor Ainslie has issued a proclamation making the occasion a general holiday, and the city council has passed an ordinance fixing next Wednesday as a legal holiday.

The occasion will be that of the State Fair, which will begin on Monday, October 6th and close Saturday, the 11th.

Members of the board of directors at a meeting yesterday afternoon, agreed that the fair this year would prove to be the greatest ever given by the association.

Next Governor Henry C. Stuart, who was in the city today, said the outlook was the brightest for the most educational and entertaining fair he ever saw.

At the meeting of the board of directors, among whom were present Chairman J. T. Anderson, Legh R. Page, Sam Cohen, R. W. Spilman, W. P. Dabney and former member L. O. Miller, the unanimous opinion was that Richmond and all who came to the city would see the greatest fair ever given in the south.

The amusement end of the fair will resemble nothing less than a great three ring circus, said Manager Warwick. There will be twenty-seven high class acts, to be presented on two stages and an arena in front of the grand stand.

SEEMINGLY DEAD, GETS UP.

William Spencer Recovers While Friends Arrange His Funeral.

Lynchburg, Va., Oct. 1.—William Spencer, 80 years old, recovered from a state of coma yesterday, while friends, believing him dead, were arranging for burial. In a short time he got up and dressed, saying he was feeling "pert."

The old man, with a sister nearly his age, lived for 15 years in an old boat on the banks of the James river until the boat was rendered uninhabitable by a flood six months ago. He is a Confederate veteran and formerly taught school in Nelson county and is blind.

EFFECT OF TABLETS.

Lynchburg Plumber in Stupor After Trying to Ease Pain.

Lynchburg, Va., Oct. 1.—As the result of having swallowed a quantity of codein tablets and other medicine Friday night in the hope of alleviating the pain he was suffering from a tooth abscess, R. P. Cowhig, a plumber, whose establishment is located at Sixth and Main streets, is lying in a stupor in the Home and Retreat, and although his physician holds out hope for his recovery, his condition is thought to be serious.

After taking the medicine, among which, in addition to codein, was veronal, Mr. Cowhig became drowsy Friday night in his room in the Courtland Apartments, and since then has been in a sleepy condition from the effects of the drugs. He has not been entirely unconscious, but is affected in such a way as to crave sleep, and his friends have experienced difficulty in awakening him. He was removed to the Home and Retreat Monday and is being attended by Dr. Robert Lemon.

LATEST ESCAPE FROM STATION HOUSE.

Three prisoners took French leave from the station house at an early hour this morning. Two were "drunks" and former patrons of the Police Court, and should they not return, the community will shed no tears. One of the men, however, was charged with a more serious offense, he having been arrested on suspicion of being a party to the robbery of a passenger on a steam train on the way to Alexandria of sufficient money to form a charge of grand larceny.

This is the third escape from the station house in this city in recent years. On one occasion a prisoner hoisted the window on the Fairfax street side and passed out into the street. He was not captured. Subsequently a young man who had been arraigned in the Police Court to answer the charge of breaking and robbing railway cars and who was about to face the grand jury broke from the officers, jumped over the railing of the court room, dashed down stairs, scattering spectators in all directions, reached Market alley, passed up King street and when last seen was running through West End.

The committee on public property of the City Council later had iron bars placed in the windows of the Fairfax street side, also in the windows facing the alley.

The work, however, has never been regared as stable, and this morning, after the trio had secured a substantial breakfast at the expense of the city, they, without much difficulty, removed a bar in the window facing the alley and were soon at liberty.

The wing of the station house from which the escapes were made this morning, was fitted up for the old Sun Fire Engine Company when the new market building was erected in 1872. Upon the disbandment of that organization later the city rented it to hucksters, and about twenty years ago, after considerable litigation with the lessees, it wa smade an annex of the original station house, which had always been too contracted for the purposes for which it was built.

The work of placing proper bars in the addition should be commenced at once in order to prevent any further escapes of prisoners.

BRYAN SPEAKS AT FAIR

Delivers Lecture to Large Audience At Fredericksburg, Va.

Fredericksburg, Va., Oct. 1.—Secretary of State Bryan arrived here yesterday afternoon and was met at the station by A. P. Rowe, president of the Fredericksburg Fair and Alexander Berger, of Hayfield, and went to the home of W. J. Ford, where an informal lunch was tendered Mr. Bryan. A number of prominent citizens called to pay their respects to the distinguished visitor.

Immediately after the lunch the secretary was taken to the fair grounds, where a large crowd was in waiting. President Rowe called the assemblage to order and presented Mr. Berger as chairman.

Mr. Bryan was greeted with a great ovation His subject was 'The Signs of the Times," and for more than an hour he discussed the problems of reform, religious questions, morals and progress in the scientific government.

At the close of the address Mr. Bryan held an informal reception. After the lecture he left in an automobile for Maryton Schoolhouse, near Hayfield, the home of Mr. Berger, where he spoke on "Fundamentals." He then returned to this city and took the 7:01 train for Washington.

BRISTOL OFFICE TO STAY.

President Wilson Revokes Burleson's Order Abolishing It.

Bristol, Va., Oct. 1.—The appeal of Senators Martin and Swanson of Virginia, to President Wilson, has saved the postoffice in Bristol, Va., from being abolished. The order of Postmaster-General Burleson abolishing that office and combining its business with the postoffice in Bristol, Tenn., was revoked yesterday by the President.

Postmaster General Burleson took the position that only sentiment and not economy and efficiency of service demanded the continuance of this office. The determined stand of the Virginians won the President. It is intimated that the question of retaining the Bristol (Va.), office established by President Taft last February, will be fought out in Congress. It is said that Chairman Moon, of the Committee on Postoffices and Post Roads, is opposed to the double postoffice arrangement for Bristol and will recommend against an appropriation for the Virginia office.

Tablet to Virginia Cavalry.

Lynchburg, Va., Oct. 1.—The tablet in honor of the Second Virginia Cavalry, which is to mark the place in Miller Park where the regiment was mustered in and out of the Confederate service, was unveiled this morning.

The tablet was presented by Congressman Carter Glass, following which short addresses were made by Col. K. Breckenridge, who commanded the regiment, and General T. T. Munford. A chorus of school children sang at the dedication, which was under the auspices of Garland-Rodes Camp.

HELPLESS AS BABY
Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.
Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emery, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work.
I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.
Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."
If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.
Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.

ENTOMBED MINER.

Imagines the Roof of Coal is About to Fall Upon Him.

Centralia, Pa., Oct. 1.—As darkness enveloped the Continental colliery of the Lehigh Coal Company last night the voice of Thomas Teshesky, who has been entombed in the mammoth vein 100 feet deep since last Friday morning, was heard through a tube 50 feet long, which had been inserted in a hole bored through a wall of coal from an adjoining breast. He spoke quite distinctly, his first inquiry being about his family.

"Tell them not to worry," he said, "as I am in fairly good condition. Since I got several bottles of milk and whipped eggs I feel much stronger and more content.

"I had a long sleep after satisfying my hunger and thirst, and feel certain that I will be rescued before another fall of top rock and coal can occur."

The entombed man stated he was very nervous because of the long confinement and absolute quiet. "Sometimes," he said, "I imagine the whole roof of the breast is about to drop on my head."

Outside the mine Teshesky's wife and four children await his removal with great eagerness.

A Fatal Coon Hunt.

Luray, Va., Oct. 1.—Daniel Sours, about 17 years old, son of Samuel Sours, a star route mail carrier between Luray and Skyland, a summer resort on top of the Blue Ridge, in this county, was killed while coon hunting Monday night. Young Sours, accompanied by two colored boys, had reached one of the wildest portions of the Blue Ridge and was leading the party. He was carrying a lantern light, which it is supposed blinded him in such a way that when he reached the edge of a cliff, he pitched headlong to the bottom, a distance of 75 or 100 feet. When picked up his body was mangled beyond recognition, many bones being broken and his brains knocked out.

Uniontown, Pa.—Major Alexander McDowell, for seventene years clerk of the National House of Representatives, and prominent in Republican politics, is seriously ill at his home here.

THE SUPERIORITY OF TRADE-MARKED FOOTWEAR.

(By Joseph A. Berberich.)

Best Evidence That The Manufacturer Has Faith in Product.

Did you ever stop to consider what the trade mark on a shoe means? The fact that it is there is the best evidence in the world that the manufacturer has faith in his product. His whole hope for success depends upon the quality of the shoe back of that mark, every dollar of capital invested in his business is banked on the reputation made by this mark.

The purchaser of a trade-marked shoe in the first place buys that shoe because of the reputation which the mark has made because of some advertising argument that has been advanced in favor of this or that particular trade-marked shoe. Therefore, the trade-marked shoe must be good. If it fails the manufacturer knows that he stands to lose, and a steady loss of patronage first gained, means the reputation of any business.

On the other hand, the manufacturer of a shoe without a trade mark does not have to assume any responsibility for any shoe which he produces that does not make good. In fact, he can even deny the manufacture and who can prove to the contrary.

The success of the Berberich business is founded on trade-marked shoes. Berberich's can afford to guarantee the satisfaction of these shoes because the manufacturer in the first place has guaranteed Berberich's satisfaction, and only a satisfied customer will satisfy Berberich's. The fact that a shoe is dissatisfactory to Berberich's is sufficient to these manufacturers. Berberich's knows by experience that the names or trademarks of the manufacturer on a shoe have the same significance as the word "Sterling" on silverware. These names or marks are backed by millions of dollars, and are of priceless value to the manufacturers, to the retailers and to the purchasers. They are known all over the wide world wherever shoes are worn.

Right here, I would state that while imported articles of apparel are usually preferred by correct dressers, the American-made trade-marked shoe has no competition. It stands supreme as the standard of excellence. In fact, in foreign countries, American-made shoes are in far better standing than those of foreign make, But these countries do not want just American-made shoes, they insist upon the American-made trade-marked shoe.

These shoes need no introduction to the women of Washington—nor the women of any other large city, for that matter, for this feminine footwear enjoys not only a nation-wide reputation, but an international one.

Right here we would add that only the extremely liberal co-operation of the manufacturers of these Nationally famous trade-marked shoes enabled the House of BERBERICH to make such pretentious Anniversary gifts at this, their 45th business birthday.

The quality of GUDE flowers likewise needs no introduction—and this is particularly true of GUDE ROSES. Ogram's old-fashioned Presidential Chocolates likewise tell their own sweet story best—their absolute purity and freshness is guaranteed.
